You Can't Bles Monsigner Preston's Name Before the Irish Historical Society. On the Wednesday after Washington's Birthday, when the dinner of the Irish Historical Society was given at the New York Hotel, P. B. Egan was expelled from membership of Preston, after it was road by the Secretary, James Rogers.

Mr. Egan is founder of the Galway Association, and is prominently identified with numerous other Irish organizations. He is Treasurer of the Bogtrotter's Association, of which many politicians and business men are members He said to a SUN reporter yesterday:

1 never was a member of the Irish Historical Society. I believe that I was considered a member, however, and was recognized as such, I attended dinners given at the house of Thad-I attended dinners given at the house of Thaddeus Moriarty, and when the public dinner was talked of sent my check for $36 for six tickets. At a meeting previous to the dinner it was suggested that Archbishop Corrigan. Archbishop Farrelly of Philadelphia, and Monsignor Preston be invited to the dinner. The name of Dr. McGlynn was mentioned. I seconded the invitation and made a speech, saying that I had known Dr. McGlynn for a great many years, and that he was always in the front rank as an Irishman and a patriot, ready to further anything that was Irish. I had never understood. I added, that Monsignor Preston had taken any part whatever in Irish affairs, and there was no earthly reason for inviting him to a dinner of an Irish society. A great deal of objection was taken to my statements, and the discussion was prolonged until the end of the meeting, which resulted in nothing. I understood that nobody was to be invited, but when I got to the dinner I heard letters read from Archbishop Corrigan and Monsignor Preston, and I always will hiss his name, because I believe that if it were not for him Dr. McGlynn would be a priest of the Roman Catholic Church now. I was of a mind to send one of my tickets to Dr. McGlynn, but I was persuaded by friends not to do so. They said it would surely result in a row. After five of them had talked to me I gave in. I am not in sympathy with Dr. McGlynn politicality. Mr. Rean said he did not care a fig for anythre. deus Moriarty, and when the public dinner

Mr. Egan said he did not care a fig for anything the Irish Historical Society did to him. Secretary Rogers yesterday said:
"At the last meeting before the dinner it was settled that the Archbishop and Monsignor Preston should be invited, and Mr. Egan was expelled by a vote of the entire society. All were of the opinion that he had committed a gross outrage upon Monsignor Preston, that sould be wiped out only by his expulsion."

A MONUMENT FOR DR. JUDSON.

Large Subscriptions for a Proposed Mem

ovement is on foot to erect a monument or memorial to Adoniram Judson, the pioneer American missionary to foreign lands. He was one of a group that went to India in 1812, under the auspices of the American Board of Commissioners for Foreign Missions, organized for that purpose. On the voyage out he changed his denominational views from Methodism, and for nearly forty years of a mission-American Baptist Missionary Union. He translished a mission that served as a model to all Christian missionaries. He was also a great sufferer for the cause in which he was enlisted. For twenty-one months he was confined in prison in Ava and in Oung-pen-la. For the greater part of this imprisonment he lay upon his back under a low, thin roof, beneath a stiflingly hot Oriental sun, with his legs in Irons, and suspended from a bamboo pole. His gyves and his constrained and painful position resulted in sears that he carried to the grave. As he died at sea, and was buried in the Indian Decan, no material monument has ever been srected to his memory. The centennial anniversary of his birth, Aug. 9, 1888, it is hoped will see the completion of the work of collecting enough funds for the purpose. His son, the Hev. Edward Judson of the Berean Baptist Ohurch, Downing street, has $50,000 in hand, and a conditional subscription of $40,000 from John D. Rockefeller. The purpose is, if possible, to have the memorial take the shape of a massive and beautiful church edifice, so placed as to admit of the greenest degree of usefulness, and with sears entirely free. The additional use of the building as a headquarters of Baptist benevolence—foreign, domestic, and eivic—and for library and reading room purposes is also to be considered. sufferer for the cause in which he was en-

Meel-and-Toe from Newark to Jersey City on the Ballroad Track.

Judge E. Henry Lacombe of the United States Court started from his winter home in Morristown Monday morning on the 8:25 train of the D., L. and W. road. which got stuck fast an hour later in the big Morris county drifts at Mountain station. Seeing there was no pros-pect of the train moving on, the Judge, with a number of friends, struck out for Bouth Orange, where they arrived about nightfall. Here the party put up for the night, and on Tuesday morning found they would have to tramp on if they ever expected to reach this city. They got to Newark about 10 e'clock, where the majority of the party gave out and decided to stay where they were until the blockade was raised. A few started for Jersey City in a sleigh, an enterprising delvar having been found who would make the tris at $10 a bead. Judge Lacombe wouldn't have this, and determined to foot it in to Jersey City. He took the track of the Peansylvania liailroad, and started off square heel and toe. He found no trouble in walking, as the high winds had protty effectually cleared the tracks, which run on an embankment. At 2 o'clock he was in his ehambers in the Post Office building, but little the worse for his trip. He opened court yesterday and tried an equity case with a couple o' lawyers, who comprised the rost of the court. The distance from Morristown to this city is about thirty miles, but the Judge thinks he did well to make the trip in a like number of hours. A report was circulated down town that he had been lost in the drift, and he was surprised at the effusiveness of his friends' greetings who called yesterday. The mystery was satisfactorily explained when the Judge learned that the callers had visited his office to learn whether his body had been recovered.

ST. PATRICK'S DAY IN BROOKLYN.

sless of the Ancient Order.

The two warring factions of the Ancient Order of Hibernians in Kings county have been anable to come to any agreement except to dis-agree, and on Saturday Brooklyn will see two distinct St. Patrick's Day parades. The first. composed of the Hibernia Hall faction, will start at 11 o'clock, and the other, the Myrtle Hall faction, an hour later. Each will form at the fountain in Bedford avenue, Williamsburgh, and go over the same line of march, as follows: Bedford avenue to Myrtle avenue, to Fulton street, to the front of City Hall, to Court street, to Union street, to Coumbla street, to Atlantic avenue, to Fourth avenue, The city authorities will not discriminate in favor of either body, and both in passing the City Hall are to be reviewed by the Mayor and the members of the Common Council. Folioe Commissioner Bell will furnish a mounted police escert to each procession, and in all the precincts through which the processions will move, the men will be kept in reserve in the stations to provide against any possible disturbance. The members of the Ancient Order of both factions are determined to march, and they say that nothing but another bilizzard will stop them. composed of the Hibernia Hall faction, will

TAILOR WALKER APOLOGIZED.

"DEAR SIE: I was called as a juryman in your court, receiving notice March 6, at 6% P. M., to appear on the 7th at 11 A. M. Do you expect to get good jurymen at this short notice?

If you do, I think you are mistaken. I was de-man without prejudice. Yours very truly.

Recorder Smyth received the above letter on the 9th inst., and immediately issued an order to show cause why Mr. Walker should not be imprisoned or fined for contempt of court. Gen. Woodford obtained from the Recorder a stay of proceedings until yesterday. Yesterday Gen. Woodford read this applogy before the Recorder:

"Isaac Walker, being duly sworn, deposes and says: I am the person named in the annexed order to show cause. In extenuation of said letter I desire to say that I was served with notice to appear as a juryman at 11 A. M. of March 7, and did not receive notice until 6:39 P. M. of the preceding day. I am alone in business at 275 Fifth avenue, near Thirtieth street, and had made several business appointments for the 7th inst., which I had no time or opportunity to arrange otherwise. In addito this I was not only ill myself, having called in a physician that day for treatment, but I had then, and I still have, a son, six years of of age, very ill of scarlet fever. This accumulation of trouble and annoyance so disturbed me that I wrote the letter in question with very little thought, and am now conscious of the very serious impropriety of which I was guilty. I had never before served as a juryman and was not aware that the Court was in no way responsible for my appearance in that capacity.

"I desire to express my sincere regret that no way responsible for my appearance in that capacity.

"I desire to express my sincere regret that the letter was written, and trust that this explanation will be accepted by the Court as a sufficient apology."

The liecorder said that he would accept the apology. The letter, he said, was unworthy of any man over 21 years of age and of ordinary intelligence. In conclusion, the Recorder advised Mr. Walker to try to be less overzealous in writing letters, and to be more patient as a juror. "There is only one man," added Recorder Smyth, "who is competent to write letters in this town, and that may get him into trouble some time. I refer to his Honor the Mayor." The court loungers laughed.

Mr. Walker returned to his fine residence in 175th street, near the Boston road, to meditate on his experience, as there was no business at 275 Fifth avenue. He might have been fined $250 and put in prison for thirty days.

that the mission which was committed to him was committed to a man with an independent fortune, who could give up his time and his talents to its realization. Those who remember the treatment of animals in this city twenty-five years ago and compare it with their treatment now can estimate the value of the service he has done. He was a zealot like all men charged with a mission. Extreme measures were necessary for extreme results. He was made a butt for ridicule, but now the conservers of opinion will be that there will be found no marble white enough on which his name and his virtues may be recorded."

Mr. Bergh has rendered a great service to the community, and the District Attorney has properly alluded to the work he has done. All the great change which has taken place in twenty-five years in the treatment of animals it is conceded is due to Mr. Bergh and to the Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Animals. It was my privilege to know him personally, and our acquaintance has ripened in court, where he frequently appeared to assist the District Attorney. To know Mr. Bergh was to admire and respect him. I never knew a kinder hearted or a nobler man. His loss will be a very great one to this community, and in this court it will be felt keenly. A minute of his death will be made in the records."

window and saw two men coming out of his store with bags across their shoulders. The men, before he reached the street, were gone. Hainnorst told Policeman Carroll and Detective Clark of the Thirty-seventh street station what he had seen. While examining the door of the store, which the burgiars had forced open, the groceryman was surprised to see the thieves coming back.

They had apparently returned for a second load. When they saw they were discovered they field, but were captured. They were exconvicts John Riley, 22 years old, of 504 West Thirty-ninth street, and John Ward, aged is years of 408 West Thirty-eighth street. The stolen property, $100 worth of cigars and $13.80 in money, was recovered, and the prisoners were committed for trial.

Pimples

"I was troubled, for a long time, with a humor which appeared on my face in pimples and blotches. By taking Ayer's Sarsaparilla I was cured."— Chas. H. Smith, North Craftsbury, Vt.

A young lady of Dover, N. H., writes that for a number of years her face was covered with pimples, and she was constantly annoyed by their appearance. Three bottles of Aver's Sarsaparilla rendered her skin perfectly clear.

"I can heartily recommend Ayer's Sarsaparilla for all of those who are suffering from scrofulous humors. I was afflicted for years, and tried every available remedy, with no effect. He Wrote an Impudent Letter to Recorder A Weman Terribly Burned with Vitriel by a Frenzied Father. SPRINGFIELD, Mo., March 14.- Dr. George Isaac Walker, a tailor, of 275 Fifth avenue, M. Cox. United States Pension Examiner at was arraigned before Recorder Smyth in the General Sessions yesterday for contempt of court. Mr. Walker is a tall, well-formed man, Springfield, induced Effie Ellis, the mistress of his son. Penton Cox. a physician, to enter a his son. Fenton Cox, a physician, to enter a carriage with him, and when she was seated struck her over the head with a bottle of vitriol, breaking the bottle and covering the face and head of his victim with the acid. Her screams attracted the attention of the police, who released her from the frenzied physician; but not until her eyes had been burned out and her handsome features destroyed by the vitriol, which burned into the gashes made by the broken glass. and as he stood by the side of his counsel, Gen. Stewart L. Woodford, he looked more like a General than the General did. The occasion for Mr. Walker's appearance in court in an en-tirely different way from his late experience as a juror drawn on the March panel is explained "275 FIFTH AVENUE. } which burned into the gashes made by the broken glass.

The agony of the woman was intense, and she now lies at the point of death. Fenton Cox met her at a Wisconsin watering place last summer. He brought her to Springfield, and has since pursued a course of debauchery and ruin. The Doctor, by legal means, broke up a variety show which his son had started, with the woman as leading lady, and drove her out of town, but the young man followed her to St. Louis and continued his reckless course.

In six weeks he spent $2.500 on the woman and disgraced himself in other ways. Before meeting the Ellis woman Cox had been regarded as a young man of great promise, and his sudden ruin distracted his parents and led his father to commit the terrible crime. If you do, I think you are mistaken. I was delayed a whole day in your court for nothing, and at 1 o'clock the court adjourned till 2 o'clock. You did not return till nearly 3 o'clock.
My time is as valuable as yours, and therefore I feel aggrieved at the delay, and when at recess I snoke to you to say that I could not possibly serve on that jury, you treated me as if I was a tramp, and which would make it impossible for me to serve in your court as a juryman without prejudice. Yours very truly.

"Isaac Walker."

The Life NoTICE is hereby given that at the time and like in the tessointon the following application of THE NEW YORK AND HAILEM KALLEN, to CONTRACT OF THE STATE OF HORSES ON 175 CITY LIRE will be considered a required by section 12 of chapter 252 of the Laws of

of the New York and harteless and the New York and the Common Council of the City of New York:

The New York and diariem Railroad Company respectfully represent that by their charter, in 1831 (chapter 283), they were given by the Legislature the franchise of constructing and operating a railroad in this city, with a double track, from Twenty-third street north to the Harleim River, and to transport, take and carry property and persons upon the same by the power and force of steam, of animals or of any mechanical or other motive power, or of any combination of them which the company may choose to employ; that by san amendment to this act in 1821 (chapter 834, they were authorized, upon consent of the Mayor, Aidermen, and Commonaity of the city of New York, to extend their railway along the Fourth avenue to Fourteenth street, and through other streets are the second of the fourth of the street was probabiled.

For many years this company has been endeavoring to the use of other than horse power south of Fourteenth street was probabiled.

For many years this company has been endeavoring to the noisy and cumbersome one afforded by horses, which, in portions of the city traversed by their tracks, where the population is scattered and the atreets but little frequented, might give an opportunity, perhaps, tor some increased speed, and be more absolutely under the control of the driver and less likely to cause loss or injury either by colision with other vehicles or by the carelessness of those who are constantly attempting to cross the streets directly in front of the care. The company beware the population is scattered and the atreets but little frequented, might give an opportunity, perhaps, tor some increased speed, and be more absolutely under the control of the driver and less likely to cause loss or injury either by colision with other vehicles or by the carelessness of those who are constantly attempting to cross the street in a street in the propose of animpting the most of the care, and the payer has a force being required upon the pavement to keep the horses from sipping.

The panel of car and system of operation proposed is a part of the pavement, and the part of the pavement of the pavement of the street, no removal of the pavement of hereby notified to be present at the time and place mentioned in the resolution. Plan Cill J. TWOMEY.

"It is the mucous membrane, that wenderful semi-fluid envelops surrounding the delicate tissues of the air and food passages, that Catarrh makes its stronghold. Once established, it eats into the very vitals, and renders Once established, it eats into the very vitals and renders life but a long drawn breath of misery and disease, dolling the sense of bearing, trammelling the power of speech, destroying the faculty of smell, taining the breath, and killing the redned pleasures of taste. Insidiously, by creeping on from a simple cold in the head, it assaults the membraneous tining and sevelops the bones, eating through the delicate seam and causing inflammation, sloughing, and death. Nothing short of total cradication will secure health to the patient, and all alleviatives are simply procrastinated sufferings, leading to a fatal termination. SANFORD'S RADICAL CURE, by Inhaintion and by internal administration, has never failed: even when the disease has made frightful inreads on delicate constitutions, hearing, smell, and taste have been recovered, and the disease thoroughly driven out."
